MISSION SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO

Founded 1776, San Juan Capistrano, California

Famous as home of the swallows, only ruined, vine-covered walls remain of what was once the most splendid building of the mission period . . . but Father Serra's adobe chapel and one of the most complete libraries of the times survived the earthquake which destroyed the great church.

ADDRESS

PLACE STAMP HERE

COLOR PHOTOGRAPH BY HUBERT A. LOWMAN

OFFICIAL CALIFORNIA MISSION TRAILS ASS'N CARD